

Shotodo Exposé

Beginning

Recently, I've had quite disturbing occurrences with the person Shotodo2511 in personal discord DMs, which include Shotodo acting weird and creepy while knowing I am 13 years old while he is 16. I will be talking about my experience talking to Shotodo and how he should be avoided and banned from the 50xCreative community as a whole.

PLEASE DO NOT HARASS ANYBODY MENTIONED IN THIS DOCUMENT.

Shoto Blocking Me

For a little more context, when me and Shotodo started talking originally he didn't actually know my age (even though I had told him my age in a public discord server, which he said he didn't remember). After I told him my age again in an unrelated conversation we had one day, he freaked out and proceeded to unfriend and block me in discord. He would end up adding me back and unblocking me very shortly after, following up with "i lwk cant talk to you anymore". Here's the part of the conversation where he blocked me:

Shoto Saying He “Loves Me” After Learning I Was 13

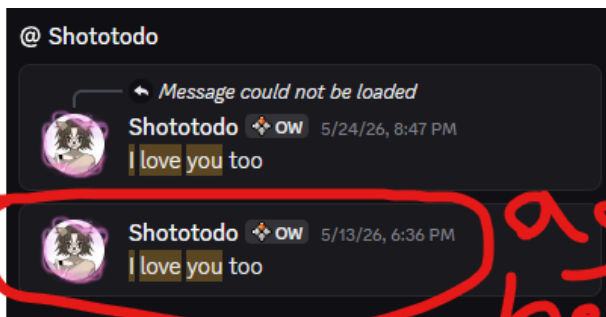

Shoto even after he learned I was 13 years old while being 16 himself, continued to not only say he loves me, but continued flirting with him even though most times I was showing little to no interest in flirting back at all.

Shoto saying he loves me:

→ these are before he knew my age

again before he knew my age

(Apologies for my terrible handwriting.)

Generally Weird Messages / Images Shoto Sent Me

Shoto even after learning my age was sending me weird and “flirty” images / messages. Even though some of them could maybe be classified as just jokes, they are still concerning. I will also be providing context for each screenshot to make sure nobody can call it “out of context”.

In this screenshot, we were having a small argument over me not hearing the messages he sent me because I was on do not disturb, in which I jokingly called him “son” in response to a message he sent, which he ended up responding to with that. Here’s the full conversation:

Also right after that little argument, he sent me a creepy message which he deleted, all though I luckily was on my phone and was able to screenshot. Here's (almost)* the full conversation of that:

*I say "almost" because after that we started talking about what videos I watch which are completely unrelated.

→ this was right after the "na"; sent

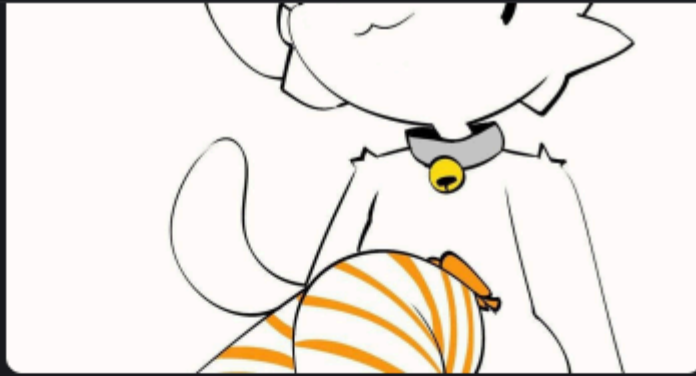

For context, in the circled messages we were talking about school because I was studying some ancient Greek at the time.

There's literally no context to this at all, he just sent it.

Here's what followed from that conversation, all though it was short:

Shototodo 🎮 OW 5/19/26, 7:16 PM

its not gay to kiss your bros fr

Shortly after, Shoto would send me another weird image:

The “wyd?” that Shoto sent was directly after his message that said “it's not gay to kiss your bros fr” in the previous screenshot. Again, there's absolutely no context to this, just him sending random “flirty” stuff.

Shoto Admitting He Was Fine With Flirting

I know I should have definitely included this earlier, but here is the screenshot of him saying he changed his mind and he's fine with talking sexually with me despite our 3 year age gap, along with the full conversation of that:

You're Vi

In these screenshots Shoto admits himself that he was being COMPLETELY serious with flirting with me even though he was the one that freaked out and blocked me when he learned I was 13. He also acts extremely desperate to date me and for me to respond to him, which I think makes the situation creepier.

This should also be a part of the generally weird images and messages part but I don't know how to work well on google docs and I don't wanna ruin anything, so I'm just going to put it here:

This was a message on the 50xCreative discord server, for context.

Epilogue

Shoto in my opinion is a horrible person, a creep, and someone who should not be involved with the 50xCreative community at all, considering most people in there are younger than him.

Also, apologies if the document is overall messy and unorganized, this is my first time actually working on a document like this but I hope everything is clear to whoever reads this!!
